Destination Servus

Exploring Bavaria and the Salzburg region

A 4-day-programme

Servus and Welcome to Bavaria!

The Southernmost German region will surprise you with new experiences while travelling in Bavaria. Exploring the charming Bavarian countryside, Alpine scenery, towns and villages you will gain a great many cultural experiences. There is a treasure for you to discover between Franconia and the Alps. Bavaria offers a rich heritage of customs and beliefs reflected by many local religious and secular festivals. These cultural traditions date back to medieval times, the renaissance, e. g. Albrecht Dürer, royal personalities such as Sissi, King Ludwig II. and the artists' circle of Blauer Reiter.

Day 1, Arrival in Munich

Upon arrival in Munich transfer to your hotel. 2 nights in Munich.

Day 2, Munich – Neuschwanstein and Linderhof

Find out about the myth of King Ludwig II, the most enigmatic of the Bavarian Kings. Known for his affinity with extravagance and fine arts he was called "The Fairy Tale King". Herrenchiemsee and Linderhof castles are considered as his top architectural achievements. Neuschwanstein, a two-hours-drive from Munich is the best known and, regarding its setting, most spectacular of the royal Bavarian castles. It served as inspiration for Walt Disney's fairy tale castles. Our route will take you through the beautiful Upper Bavarian landscape offering you a great many impressions of the marvellous Alpine scenery. Following lunch continue to Linderhof where you will enjoy a stroll through the magnificent gardens. It is the most intimate of Ludwig's castles. Back to Munich in the early evening.
